

Old York Road Temple - Beth Am Fall offering in Adult Education

We are happy to announce the return of Rabbi Howard Bogot to our adult education program. Join us for an 8-week series with Rabbi Howard Bogot beginning on Wednesday, October 16 10:00 a.m. with a book signing and overview. He will lead you on a fascinating journey through his new book, “Jewish Me, Traveling the Path of Jewish Mindfulness”. Complimentary books for all participants. Contact bmarks@oyrtbetham.org for additional information and to register.

Join Rabbi Leib following the above class with Rabbi Bogot for a LUNCH-and- LEARN experience from 11:45 a.m.- 1:00 p.m. Text, writings and thought-provoking material will be shared and explored. Contact Bonnie Marks at bmarks@oyrtbetham.org for additional information and to register.

Cantillation class with Cantor Elena Zarkh is offered to those proficient in reading Hebrew or after completion of the second year of adult Hebrew studies. Weekly classes on Sunday mornings starting in November provide the opportunity to develop Torah chanting skills. Participants are then invited to read Torah for the congregation throughout the year. Please contact Cantor Zarkh at ezarkh@oyrtbetham.org if you would like more information.

שָׁלוֹם

Wanna Speak Hebrew? This weekly course in conversational Hebrew is open to learners from Grade 8 through adults and will be taught by Orna Torgeman. Classes began Sunday, September 15, but it is not too late to join. Class times are Sundays, 12:15- 2:15 p.m. Material fee only. For information contact Jackie Lehner at JLehner@oyrtbetham.org.

Join the Rabbi – Explore Pirkei Avot

Sunday mornings during the fall, join Rabbi Leib continuing journey through Pirkei Avot! Beginning October 6 at 9:30 a.m. in the upper lobby. Pirkei Avot is among the most well-known beloved of all writings in Rabbinic Judaism. The famous teachings found in that cherished volume reflect the basic pillars of Judaism’s ethical foundations.

Please contact the administrative office to register or for additional information 215-886-8000.